PBS Kids Reading Marathon

Our Librarian, Mrs. Rogers has been awarded a grant from PBS kids Utah. Your child should be brought a calendar home from school to track their reading minutes throughout the month of November. This calendar will be turned back into school by Dec. 6th.

Thanksgiving Break

Wednesday, Nov. 24th, will be a half day of school. Lunch will not be served that day. Students will be dismissed at 11:45. Thanksgiving Break is Thursday & Friday, November 25th & 26th.

Student Council will be selling suckers for $0.50 during the movie. We will be watching the new movie, Clifford, the Big Red Dog.

Emery Caring for Kids continues to accept donations to put together weekly food kits. Emery Caring for Kids is currently providing 91 bags of food every week to students in Emery School District. For more information visit their Facebook page @ Emery Caring For Kids. Additional food kit information on the back of today's bulletin.

Chromebooks for students

Emery School District is providing students that meet grant qualifications with a Chromebook to be used at home as an assistive technology device to meet educational needs. The Chromebook will be issued upon completion of a grant agreement and approval of student qualifications. Students qualify based on financial need or other hardship. If your child is on free or reduced lunch, they are eligible to receive a Chromebook. Please complete the agreement at emeryschools.org
