Community Council

*Any parent who is interested in serving on the Community Council may declare their interest at Ferron Elementary by September 27th. The Community Council is a critical component in serving our school through annual evaluation of programs, identifying the school's most critical academic needs, creating action plans & participating in financial decision-making to enhance or improve academic achievement.

ATTENTION

Free/Reduced Meal Applications will expire on Sept. 30th. Please reapply for eligibility beforehand to avoid a lapse in services.
